Resumed session
24–29 June 1999
Agenda item 4
Adoption of the report of the Commission acting as preparatory committee for the special session of the General Assembly

Draft report on the resumed session

Rapporteur: Ms. Gabriella Vukovich (Hungary)

I. Introduction

1. By its resolution 52/188 of 18 December 1997, the General Assembly decided to convene a special session for a duration of three days from 30 June to 2 July 1999 in order to review and appraise the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development (twenty-first special session). It also decided that the Commission on Population and Development should serve as the preparatory body for the final preparations for the special session. The Commission on Population and Development acting as preparatory committee for the special session held the first part of its session from 24 to 1 April 1999.[1] By its decision 53/482 of 8 June 1999, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the Commission acting as preparatory committee in its decision 1999/PC/2, decided to authorize the preparatory committee to hold a resumed session from 24 to 29 June 1999 in order to finalize its work.
